Explain in detail the reasons for your position that the newly filed case is related to the earlier filed case.

These cases are both breach of contract actions against the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela involving the nonpayment on notes issued by the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela. These two actions involve common issues of fact and law regarding Venezuela's defenses to enforcement of the debt. Hearing these cases together is necessary to avoid conflicting orders regarding the enforceability of Venezuela's debt and to avoid a substantial duplication of effort and expense, delay, or undue burden on the Court, parties, and witnesses.
